The state makes these appropriations because the county has made appropriations for similar amounts. for similar amounts.

Rev. W. C. Russell, pastor of the Methodist church at Warrenton, Mo., is an attendant on the Methodist Assembly in Arcadia and was a caller at this office last Wednesday. Mr. Russel is a grandson of the late John P. Havden, one of the pioneers in this Hayden, one of the pioneers in this section and who many years made his home on a farm west of Shepherd Mountain. This is Mr. Russell's first visit to the valley in thirty years.

Rev. John E. White, D. D., who will be the Assembly pastor on Arcadia Heights this summer, is the pastor of the Second Baptist Church, of Atlanta, Ga., the largest church in Georgia. Dr. White possesses a very striking personality. He is an exceptionally brilliant orator, much in demand for White is identified with many of lhe social movements of the South. He is very popular at home.

An attache of the civil service com mission at Washington, D. C., will be here Thursday with the papers made at the examination by the applicants for the Des Arc post-office. The Methodist Assembly.

The Fifth Annual Methodist As The Fifth Annual Methodist Assembly which has been in session at Arcadia the past week has been well attended at every service. But Sunday was the banner day. It is estimated that 2,000 people were assembled in and near the tabernacle at the morning service. Dr. Rice preached on "Christ's Anger to the Hunger for Knowledge." J. W. Estes, of St. Louis, collected $700 for the expense of the Assembly. The session closes Monday, July 27th. Monday, July 27th.

NOTES FROM THE ASSEMBLY. The annual assembly of the Metho-dist Church this year has doubtless been more successful than that of any year of its history. About 300 people camped on the ground during the en-tire session, and the total attendance of Missouri. Among the visitors were many politicians of wide reputation, several millionaires of St. Louis and elsewhere, Chapin and Love of the St. Louis Republic staff, and some of the leading preachers of America. leading preachers of America.

The Assembly program this year was in every respect up to the high standard which former years established. The leading lecturer was the Rev. Dr. John A. Rice, pastor of first church in Fort Worth, Texas, one of the largest Methodist Churches in America. Dr. Rice thrilled his hearers from day to day as he delivered ten brilliant addresses on the general subject of "Jesus Chirst and our Human Hungers." Following Dr. Rice man Hungers." Following Dr. Rice came the Rev. Dr. S. A. Steele, pastor of Centenary Church at Columbia, South Carolina. No man in Methodism enjoys a more enviable and widespread reputation as a preacher and ecturer than Dr. Steele; at the Assembly he preached on the Crucifixion and the Resurrection, and delivered his two greatest lecturers, which have his two greatest lecturers, which have been classic for twenty years: "Ploneers of Methodism" and "Home Life in Dixie During the War." Among the other preachers and lecturers were Dr. W. F. McMurry, Louisville, Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, of Cape Girardeau, Rev. J. Marvin Clubreth, Dr. C. D. t. Bulla, Mrs. B. W. Lipscomb, Dr. Stonewall Anderson, and Dr. C. F. Reid, of Nashville, Tenn., Rev. L. R. Jenkins, of Farmington, Rev. R. L., Russell, of Poplar Bluff, Rev. H. P. Crowe, of Fredericktown, and Rev. Marvin T. Haw, Rev. C. N. Clark, and Rev. Elmer T. Clark, of St. Louis. PERSONALS.

Very little courting done on the grounds this year. Nobody to court. There is, however, an abundance of Caledonia furnished more than her share of pretty girls this year. They turned out under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. McSpaden. L. R. Jenkins said he could always ecognize H. P. Crowe from his back

Louis Republic was among the visit-ors, with Mr. A. B. Chapin, the cartoonist on the paper. It was a home coming to Mr. Love; he was born a Irondale and spent many years in Arcadia.

Mr. C. F. Lee, of Festus, familiarly known to the Methodists of Missouri as "Uncle Charley," brought a large party of friends to the Assembly. He has recently immortalized his name by giving the sum of $10,000.00 to Marvin College at Fredericktown.

C Rev. Dr. J. W. Lee, pastor of St. John's church, St. Louis, will preach the sermon next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Lee has the reputation of being one of the most gifted men in the Southern church. You should in the Southern church. not miss this opportunity to hear him Dr. S. A. Steel gave us a sample of the old-time southern oratory that has nearly passed away. When he spoke on the Resurrection of Jesus to the immense audience in the tabernacle he swept his audience in a way that has been possible to but few great speakers.

The Rev. Clarence Burton of Jack con brought a new set of teeth with him to the Assembly, carrying them in his pocket most of the time. The securing of teeth is always an event in human life, and Brother Burton was warmly congratulated by the visitors present. The Wisdom Sisters, evangelists singers of Macon, Missouri, added to their reputation this year. This is the second time they have turnished mu-sic for the assembly. This part of the state has never known such unique, soul-gripping, heart-thrilling, almost awe-inspiring, music as that rendered by these consecrated girls.

(From Word and Works.)
At the urgent request of the management of the Arcadia Assembly, and of many friends and old acquantances throughout southeastern Missouri, the editor has consented to appear on the platform at that place on July 23d, evening, for an illustrated lecture, "God's Weather Mill." He will be assisted by the associate editor. Rev. J. B. Noves, who will use a tor, Rev. J. B. Noyes, who will use a powerful electric stereopticon, and pictures made expressly for this lecture. They are the only slides of their kind in the world. They show the planets as seen in large telescopes, the relative positions of the sun and the planets as seen in large telescopes, the relative positions of the sun and planets each month of the year, typical storm clouds with lightning flashes, great whirling twisters in the act of tearing up all in their path, wrecks of various kinds resulting from such tornadoes, ice, sleet and snow blockades, floods, etc., etc., in fact all that can be crowded into the lime posteriories to God's Weather time, pertaining to God's Weather Mill and its grist. Hundreds of flat-tering offers for Chautauqua work come in, and millions all over United States would hall with delight the op-portunity the people within reach of Arcadia will have at the date men-tioned. We say: truthfully that not many such opportunities are possible anywhere, and any who desire to hear this lecture must improve this one or never hear it at all. Only the fact of former association with this place, and the many friends nearby, the acceptance of a work so ardnous for one who is overworked with his own business at home. We are mailing to friends where possible, and to postmasters in sections near Arcadia, copies of this issue of Word and Works, and will esteem it a favor if those who receive them will pass the word on to others, as we desire to meet as many friends as possible. We have no financial axe to grind, only a desire to do as much good as we can, while meeting as many old friends as possible. Our extensive outfit with the time and services of two men are freely donated to the Assembly, which has become one of the foremost institutions of the kind in the middle states, accessible for all nodes of travel, and Prof. Hicks an ticipates meeting a vast assemblage of his old friends. The location of the Assembly is ideal, and none can fail to enjoy a visit.—Associate Ed. Noyes.

Save Shepherd Mountain.

The writer was greatly distressed while viewing Shepherd Mountain recently, from an adjacent hill top, at seeing the bare spots, where the timber growth is being converted into cord wood.

Surely this must be an "Age of ommercialism," when for a few dollars' worth of wood, Shepherd Mount-ain—the pride of Arcadia Valley and one of the most beautiful of the Ozark hills-is to be denuded of its virgin timber.
